

Tomorrow is the Fourth of July. It is the day on which we celebrate the birth of our Nation. Portsmouth as other cities, towns and villages, will observe the day in various ways. In the midst of the festivities all should remember the true significance of the day, and also while recalling the historic past should remember and pay honor to that band of heroes who made the continuance of the nation possible---the Veterans of the Civil War. Take off your hats to the "Old Vets" tomorrow, if on no other day. Call up your soldier friends and inquire how they are feeling. It will make their Fourth the happier.

UNITED DEMOCRACY SURE OF A VICTORY

(By United Press.)

For President—Woodrow Wilson.

For Vice President—Thos. R. Marshall.

Baltimore, Md., July 3.—Wearied, but happy and confident of victory in the coming campaign, the delegates to the National Democratic convention dispersed to their homes today. They had nominated a ticket which it was admitted represented both wings of the party, and the declaration of principles adopted unanimously was one of the most advanced ever taken by a national political party.

The scenes that accompanied the closing of the convention were in decided contrast to the tumultuous session of the week that preceded them. The fight was taken out of both sides. The only dramatic incident was the "valedictory" of William Jennings Bryan delivered shortly after 1 o'clock this morning which brought his followers to their feet with what proved the final demonstration of the long drawn out convention. Bryan dismissed with the choice of Governor Marshall for second place, but the practical politicians, Taggart, Murphy, Sullivan and their lieutenants insisted and the Indiana executive was named.

When Marshall's nomination was assured on the second ballot, it was Bryan who urged and succeeded in having North Dakota withdraw the name of Governor Burke so that the nomination might be unanimous.

Today Murphy and Bryan joined in eulogizing the ticket and predicted success for it next November.

Harmon Will Support Ticket

(By United Press.)

Columbus, O., July 3—Governor Judson Harmon of Ohio today declared he would support the Democratic ticket nominated at Baltimore. When asked if he would support Wilson for president Harmon replied:

"I rather resent the asking of such a question. Of course I will support the Democratic ticket."

Replying to a query as to what he thought of the ticket Governor Harmon said it was "all right."

It was announced at the executive office that Governor Harmon would retire to private life at the expiration of his term December 31st. He will resume the practice of law in Cincinnati.

Gov. Marshall Was Surprised

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., July 3—With his usual air Governor Marshall, the vice president nominee, arrived into the Indiana capital this morning today and proceeded to his work. If it had not been for congratulations of state officials and friends of the executive who had called upon him it would have been nothing unusual for the Indiana executive. The governor was aroused from deep sleep at one o'clock this morning by a newspaper man who called to tell him of the nomination. "Well, I declare," said the newly made nominee, rubbing the effects of sleep from his eyes. In speaking of the nomination today the governor said:

"I was not a candidate and I did not expect to be selected. It is not for a man to have ever thought of such a position. If I can be of value to Democracy in Indiana or elsewhere I am glad."

Mrs. Cornell, Eleventh street sufferer, who has been confined to the house by illness for the past week is able to be up again.

NO TIMES TOMORROW

A safe and sane Fourth will strictly be observed by the Times force Thursday. The entire bunch from the "devil" up to the managing editor, has had all of the "fireworks" wanted for some time, and is badly in need of a rest, after a severe attack of Teddyitis, Bryanitis and a few other "itises" with which they have been suffering for the past several weeks.

After due consideration by all concerned, it has been decided to help observe the Glorious Fourth by suspending publication for one day.

Ohio Republicans Will Bolt Ticket

(By Associated Press.)

Columbus, O., July 3—"The Democratic party has a new recruit, for I expect to support their state and national tickets from top to bottom," said R. P. Scott here today. Mr. Scott was defeated as a candidate for the nomination of Congressman-at-Large at the Republican state convention held here Tuesday. Continuing he said: "For some reason or other I can receive no recognition at the hands of the Ohio Republicans, although I have been a loyal supporter of the party and have always given liberally of my time and means to help carry the banner of the G. O. P. to victory. The Republicans will shortly realize that they killed me too quick. Outside of the tariff reform plank, the Democratic platform suits me to a nicety, and I will work hard for the 'Demmies' in November." Mr. Scott is a wealthy manufacturer of Cadiz, O., and was defeated two years ago for the nomination of congressman by C. A. Hollingsworth, who is a candidate again this year. Mr. Scott is reputed to be a millionaire.

(By Associated Press.)

Columbus, O., July 3—"I am going on the ballot by petition," said Judge R. M. Wanamaker of Akron, O., who was defeated as a candidate for the nomination of Judge of the Supreme Court before the Republican state convention held here Tuesday. "The convention was boss-ridden," said Judge Wanamaker, "for I had secured enough pledges from the delegates to nominate me." The judge was especially caustic when referring to the Hamilton and Cuyahoga delegates, whom, he said, were controlled at the whim of the bosses. The judge has always been an enthusiastic follower and supporter of Col. Roosevelt.

Teddy Is Silent

(By Associated Press.)

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 3.—E. A. Van Valkenberg, of Philadelphia, one of Colonel Roosevelt's lieutenants, came to Sagamore Hill today to confer with the Colonel about his third party. The Colonel would make no comment on the nomination of Governor Woodrow Wilson or the Democratic platform. "Some of the newspaper reports are taking the wind out of your third party, are they not?" he was asked.

"That's just the way they look at the situation," he replied.

Boston, Mass., July 3.—The delegates to the National Press association are arriving in this city to attend the third annual convention of the organization. The members of the association are interested in the publication of "amateur" papers and magazines.

WHAT NEW YORK PAPERS HAVE TO SAY

(By United Press.)

New York, July 3—Commenting on Wilson's nomination the New York Times said today:

"The Democratic party in the nomination of Wilson is reborn. It will be reorganized and will once more have the confidence of the people. It reduced Roosevelt's bolt to the portion of a Republican quarrel."

The New York World said: "He will be the first president of the United States in a generation to go into office owing favors to nobody except the American people. Governor Wilson's nomination means the rule of the boss is over."

Hearst's American said: "The New York American will support the nominee. Whoever else may rise or fall in the fortune of the last convention of the Democratic party. William Jennings Bryan comes out of it stained forever and stamped by his hypocricy and his hate as a fraud and a demagogue, false in language, false in profession and false in friendship as to party."

The Herald said:

"The victory of the radical element at Baltimore will be a killing frost to the hope of the projectors of the new third party. It was even a greater triumph for Mr Bryan than it was for Mr. Wilson."

REPUBLICAN GOVERNOR COMES OUT FOR WILSON

(By United Press.)

Lansing, Mich., July 3.—In a lengthy statement issued today Governor Osborn voiced his sentiment against a third party and expressed a hope that Col. Roosevelt would abandon his plan for a convention in August and not be a candidate for the presidency.

The Michigan governor was one of the seven governors to meet in Chicago and request Roosevelt to become an active candidate for the Republican nomination.

Governor Osborn says he sees no necessity for a third party just now. He praises Governor Wilson and says Republicans can vote for the New Jersey governor without leaving the party or bolting. He asserts that the regular Republican party has no candidate for president this year.

EVERYONE IS CALLING ON NEXT PRESIDENT

(By United Press.)

Sea Girt, N. J., July 3—Fatigued by the endless reception and congratulations that kept him up until 11 o'clock, an unusually late hour at the "summer capital," Gov. Wilson slept later today and when he finally emerged from his apartments he scarcely recognized the lawn of the "little white house." Tents had sprung up everywhere for the use of tel graphers and reporters and the place looked like an army camp. The state authorities stretched ropes around the yard to keep the crowds off the grass. It was expected to be a big day in Sea Girt, for the Texas delegation to the convention, 40 strong, sent word from Baltimore that they would call on the nominee in a body. Almost all of the New Jersey delegates expected to go home via Sea Girt, while many Tennessee and Pennsylvania delegates sent word to the governor they would call on him during the day.

"George D. Neal, of Mt. Vernon, was a business visitor here, Tuesday.

COMMITTEE TO SEE WILSON

(By United Press.)

Baltimore, Md., July 3.—The new Democratic national committee met today, rushed through its routine business and informally decided to go to Sea Girt, N. J., tomorrow in a body to meet the party's presidential nominee, Governor Woodrow Wilson.

The committee decided that until after Chairman Mack could arrange a committee to confer with Governors Wilson and Marshall regarding the personnel of the campaign committees and of the sub-committees and officers of the national committee itself the present temporary organization would be continued.

The committee will not reassemble except on call of the chairman. The general understanding among the committee is that Governor Wilson would pick William F. McCumb, who was his campaign manager in the pre-convention fight, to manage his campaign before the election, and that the committee would ratify this choice.

NEW SCANDAL IS BOBBING UP TO TAX POOR TAFT

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 3.—A. D. Andre, assitsant secretary of the treasury, resigned today in a letter containing such stinging criticism of Secretary MacVeagh that it has started what may become an administration scandal. Andre wrote to President Taft and to Secretary MacVeagh, criticizing MacVeagh for his decision and his attitude of hostilities to minor officials in his department.

In his letter to the president Andrew names practically every bureau seat on the treasury as having trouble with MacVeagh. Andrew would make no comment except to make public his letter. He was expert adviser to the Aldrich monetary commission and practically drew up the Aldrich central bank plan.

"Mr. Andre's resignation as assistant secretary was requested, submitted and accepted in view of his failure to obey orders given him by the secretary."

One portion of Andre's letter to President Taft is susceptible of being interpreted to the effect that other high officials in the treasury are dissatisfied with MacVeagh's treatment. A letter to MacVeagh advised him of the resignation, discloses hitherto unpublished facts that MacVeagh was on the verge of leaving the cabinet in December 1910. One part says: "You cannot forget how I stood by you when you were on the point of having taken from your hands what was probably the most important part of your administration. Without consulting you, and entirely without your knowledge knowing the embarrassment that it would cause you by the issuance of Panama bonds which threatened to force your resignation. You remember I did everything in my power to divert the humiliation. I loyally stood by you and offered to resign with you if your resignation became necessary."

When Dr. Andre heard President Taft's statement that his resignation was asked for he said "That was technically true, but the statement in my letter shows the reasons for asking that resignation."

Dr. Andre's letter said in part: "In resenting my resignation to the office I deem it proper that some of the conditions that have existed for the past two years be made known. These conditions are of grave concern not only to every official of the office but to the many thousands of citizens that do business with this office.

"Many able and energetic employes have been criticized by men whose business has suffered when the secretary alone was to blame. Time and again heads of departments have found themselves unable to carry on the business and often became so discouraged that they were on the verge of resigning because they were unable to obtain any information from Mr. MacVeagh. It is hard to understand the mental attitude of a man unless associated every day with him. He would distrust and suspicion his associates in view of the fact that these officials were men of his own choice. For periods of several months he would not speak to some of his employes, whom he naturally would come in personal contact with. When Mr. Hilles was secretary I know of a long period in which he did not speak to him."

Want Probe Of Treasury.

(By United Press.)

Washington, D. C., July 3.—An investigation of conditions in the treasury department is proposed in a resolution introduced by Congressman Cox, Democrat, of Ohio, in the house today. It was referred to the house committee on expenditures, which will consider the question whether the investigation shall be made, and report back to the house. Cox was influenced by the letter of Assistant Treasurer Andre, whose relations with the treasury were severed today.

Life Of Judge E. B. Dillon

The Columbus Dispatch of Tuesday had the following to say of Judge E. B. Dillon, the former Portsmouth man who was nominated for governor by the Republican state convention, Tuesday:

"Judge Dillon was born in Ironton, Ohio, February 9, 1869, which would make him 43 years of age this year. His father, the Rev. J. W. Dillon, was also a native of Ohio, and for many years was a member of the Ohio conference of the Methodist Episcopal church. He is still living at an advanced age, now retired, at Portsmouth, Ohio. He wedded Mary Catherine Cox, also a native of Ohio, who is still living. The Rev. J. W. Dillon was a grandson of Micajah Dillon, who came from Rockbridge county, Virginia, in 1844, and located in Lawrence county, Ohio, with his son, Henry, who became the father of the Rev. J. W. Dillon. Both spent their last days on a farm in Lawrence county. Micajah Dillon was descended from ancestors who came from County Galway, Ireland, and settled in Virginia prior to the Revolutionary war, in which representatives of the family participated.

"The ancestors of Mrs. Dillon were of the Whitaker family of Philadelphia, presenting an unbroken line for eight generations of children by the name of Mary Catherine down to the daughter of Judge Dillon.

Was An O. W. U. Graduate.

"In the public schools of the state, Judge Dillon pursued his early education, which was continued in the Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, and in 1897 that institution conferred upon him the degree of Master of Arts. After leaving college, he studied law in London, Ohio, with S. W. Durflinger, and later with George E. Martin, of Lancaster, Ohio. In October, 1891, he was admitted to the bar and at once began practice at Columbus, later forming a partnership with ex-Probate Judge H. B. Albery, which continued until Judge Dillon's election to the bench. Appointed by the supreme court of Ohio as a member of the law examining committee. He held that position five years until 1903. In 1898 he was appointed under a special law for the city of Columbus as a civil service commissioner and continued to act in that capacity until his elevation to the bench. From 1897 until he became judge of the court of common pleas, he was also attorney for the dairy and food department of the state of Ohio. In 1904 he was elected professor of law, with the chair of evidence, of Ohio State University, which position he still fills.

Was Active Politically.

"Judge Dillon has also been well known for his active work as a representative of the Republican party. He served as chairman of the Republican county and congressional committees in the campaign of 1900, when William McKinley was elected president the second time. In 1902 he was elected judge of the court of common pleas and was re-elected in 1908.

"On the 8th day of May, 1895, at Norwalk, Ohio, Mr. Dillon was married to Miss Marian Daisy Whitney, a daughter of the Hon. Calvin Whitney, of that city, a widely known philanthropist and president of the A. B. Chase Piano Company. Mrs. Dillon is a graduate of Delaware University of the class of 1901. The family residence is at No. 83 Wilson avenue. There are three children: Edmond Whitney, Mary Catherine and Marian Elizabeth.

Was Also A Fraternity Man.

"Judge Dillon is a member of Phi Kappa Psi college fraternity and Delta Chi law fraternity, and has been a member of the Ohio State Bar Association since 1892. He also belongs to Champion Lodge, K. of P., Columbus Lodge, F. & A. M., and the Columbus Lodge of Elks. He is a member of the Madison Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, and is serving on its official board. He is six feet, two inches tall, of athletic build, courteous and approachable and of genial manner."

JUDGE DILLON WILL HAVE TO RESIGN

Columbus, O., July 3.—The law provides that a judge can be a candidate for only a judicial office and therefore Judge E. B. Dillon will have to resign to Governor Harmon before election day in order to be eligible as a candidate for governor. This will mean that a Democrat will be placed on the common pleas bench of Franklin county—a bench that has been solidly Republican for many years.

It is likely, however, that Judge Dillon will resign as judge more than 30 days before the November election, in which case his successor will be elected at the election then and the vacancy appointment will be a short one.

Mrs. Smith's Hired Girl

Mrs. Smith is lucky. She has kept a servant for three years, and although the girl has been offered more money elsewhere she won't leave Mrs. Smith. The girl does all the washing, scrubs the floors, does up the lace curtains, and even washes the bedding. People wonder why she stays at Mrs. Smith's and does so much work than other girls can be induced to do, until they learn that Mrs. Smith buys Easy Task Laundry Soap, which does one-half the work and makes the other half easier.

Conductor Is Victim Of Cowardly Attack

John A. Black, well known conductor, was murderously assaulted by Bill, better known as "Pap" Good, a North End negro character, just after N. & W. passenger train arrived here from Williamson, W. Va., Tuesday evening.

Without warning the negro struck Black with some instrument, it is believed, knocking him down and fracturing his cheek bone, and inflicting other cuts about his head. Only the timely interference of Brakeman Elijah Collins, who beat off the negro, saved Black from worse injury. Good then took to his heels, and though the police scoured the city for him all night long, he succeeded in making his escape. Black was taken to his home on Findlay street, where he was attended by a company physician. Mrs. Black is visiting in Bluefield, W. Va., but was immediately notified of her husband's assault by wire, and was expected back home Wednesday.

Good boarded the passenger train at Ironton. He was intoxicated, it is said, and vomited several times, for which he was severely reprimanded by Black.

THEY ARE ON THEIR WAY

Dr. Howard Williamson, and Messrs. H. E. Taylor, Ford Haldeman and F. B. Carson, who have been at Cleveland and northern points in the Williamson touring car, will return home this evening. A message from Columbus, received Wednesday morning, stated that the party had arrived there at 2:30 this morning. They expected to leave Columbus this afternoon at 1 o'clock and make a very slow trip home. Heavy rains have occurred all over the state, and the roads between here and Columbus are very heavy.

MRS. H. C. SEARCY CONTRIBUTES POEM

The following poem, which appeared in the "Lookout," issued by The Christian Standard Publishing Co., of Cincinnati, is from the pen of Mrs. H. C. Searcy, wife of former Mayor Searcy, now a resident of the Queen City. Mrs. Searcy is a woman of considerable literary talent and has contributed articles to many of the leading magazines of the country. The poem follows:

REGRET.

I meant to do the kindly deeds
That make life worth the living;
I meant to lift the load of care,
To sweeten lives by giving.
The joy around me reigned supreme.
That many bowed in sorrow
I knew, and meant to love and lift,
But waited—till tomorrow.

The fragrant flowers bloomed for me;
I meant to cull their beauty,
That they might brighten other hearts—
My privilege, not duty.
But life today was full. I had
No joys to loan or borrow,
And so the flowers drooped and died
While waiting for—tomorrow.

I knew how precious moments are,
How swiftly time is fleeting;
How quickly follow sad farewells
Upon the welcome greeting.
How soon today would pass away
I knew—and this the sorrow;
Because I knew what I should do,
Then waited till—tomorrow.

And so the smile that was worth while,
The tender word unspoken,
The drooping heads of lilies—dead,
The scores of vows—all broken,
The heart so seared with hope deferred,
The joys all merged in sorrow,
Condemn me—for I knew, and still
I waited till—tomorrow.

Dinner will be served at the club house, and arrangements are being made to entertain a number of visitors. On Saturday several games will be played in the July handicap.

HUMANE MAN KEPT BUSY

Humane Officer Harry Ball put in a busy day Tuesday correcting conditions that came to his notice.

The Judge's prosecution resulted in Harry Foster, a lunch wagon man and father of six minor children, being bound over to the grand jury from 'Squire Byron's court on a non-support charge. It was alleged that Foster squanders all of his money for drink.

The Judge filed a motion in the same justice court to have an attachment against Bird Nelson dismissed. Nelson, who is missing, had $11 due him from the steel company attached by H. T. Hatton on a loan of six or seven years' standing. Judge Ball made the claim that Nelson, as head of a family of minor children, was exempt, and that the money rightfully belonged to his wife. The motion will be heard at a later date.

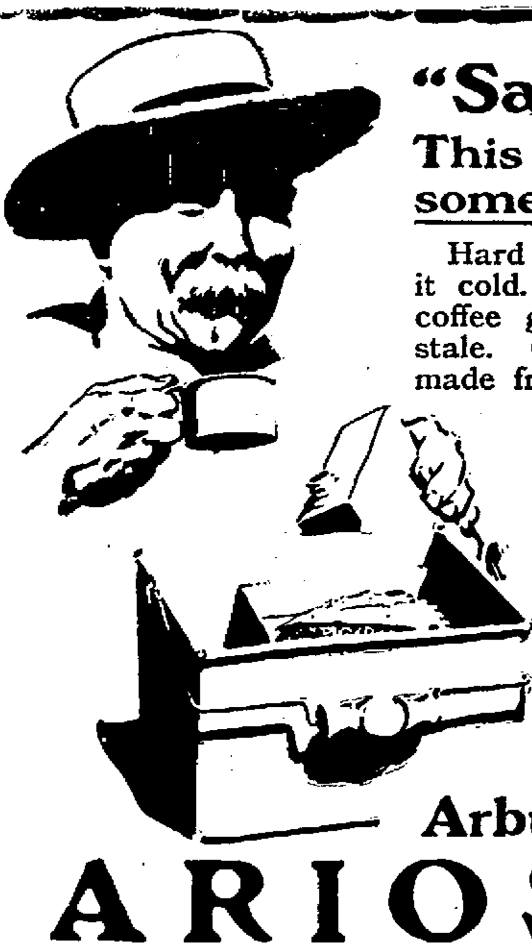

A complaint made to the Humane Society by Mrs. Robert Starks, colored, that her husband, who is employed as a saloon porter, was not supporting her, was also investigated. Starks claimed he was providing well for his family, but that his wife was not altogether responsible, having been an inmate of an asylum once, and her troubles were purely imaginary.

Judge Ball Tuesday morning stopped Ed. Walls, of Lucasville, from beating a team of horses while driving down Second street with a load of hay. Walls was so scared over his near arrest that he quit his job then and there.

Judge Ball and the hilltop firemen went to the rescue of Grocer Charles Weaver's horse Wednesday morning. While standing near the engine house the horse suddenly commenced kicking and a hind leg got over the singletree. The horse was slightly hurt in extricating it from its position.

Odd Fellows Are To Have Big Celebration

Grand Chief Patriarch George H. Ruel, of Cleveland; State Grand Master F. C. Goodrich, of Troy, and State Grand Secretary O. H. Lyman, of Columbus, state officers of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, who will be the principal speakers at the basket picnic and celebration to be given under the auspices of the Scioto County Odd Fellows association at Midway Mountain park, near Rarden, Thursday, are expected to arrive here tonight to assist in the consolidation of Portsmouth and Manila lodges, Daughters of Rebekahs, the meeting for which will be held at Scioto lodge hall.

All indications point to a large attendance at the picnic tomorrow. The committee in charge of the sale of tickets for the train trip report the tickets are going with a rush and they say the prospects are good for a crowd of more than 500 from this city alone.

The local delegation will go down on the train which leaves here at 7:30 and they will be accompanied by the Peerless City band, who will furnish music for the affair. The committee has provided a series of fine attractions for the amusement of the crowd, including a balloon ascension, foot races, baseball and fireworks in the evening. In addition an exceedingly interesting program, featured by speeches and music, will be rendered. Other speakers will be Grand Senior Warden W. B. Roderick, of West Union, and Hon. W. P. Stephenson, of Manchester.

The park is located on the banks of Brush creek and there is plenty of shade, making the place most desirable for such an outing. Boats will be provided free for those who enjoy rowing. All local trains in both directions will stop at the park to discharge and take on passengers. Those from here who do not care to spend the entire day there can wait for the train which leaves here at 2:20 p. m. The recent rains have put the grounds in splendid condition and with propitious weather a most delightful time is assured. This is a fine opportunity to spend a day with the members of this excellent fraternal organization, as they have extended a cordial welcome to the general public.

Fireworks Are Sold

Our Streets Best Ever

Director of Public Service John M. Williams returned home Tuesday night from Detroit, Mich., where he inspected some stokers of the kind contemplated in the new local water works. Mr. Williams says Portsmouth's paved streets compare favorably with those of the Michigan metropolis, in fact our brick paved streets are better than the brick paved streets of Detroit, where a softer block is used. The streets of Detroit are flushed nightly, and this, too, is hard on them says Mr. Williams.

LOCAL BOY SHOT IN CANAL ZONE

Word has just been received here that Allen I. Scamyhorn, a former Portsmouth shoeworker, was shot and fatally wounded in Panama some weeks ago.

The above information came in a letter to Miss Winnie Blair, shoeworker, of Sixth street. They kept company until Scamyhorn enlisted in the Regular army a year ago last May. The letter was from a comrade of the wound man and was dated June 19th. It gave no particulars, but reported Scamyhorn at the point of death.

Scamyhorn was a member of Company F, Twelfth Infantry, stationed at Monterey, Cal. It is learned his company is still there, so it is thought he must have gone to Panama on a scouting expedition. The report of his shooting is somewhat discredited by his father, Isaac N. Scamyhorn, a clerk at J. N. Lawill & Son's grocery in the North End. He thinks he would have been notified. He has written to his son's captain and is anxiously awaiting word from him.

NOMINATION RECALLS OLD DAYS IN THE PEERLESS CITY

(By MILFORD KEYES.)

The nomination of Judge E. B. Dillon as the Republican candidate for governor is further evidence that Scioto seems unable to hold her great men and budding geniuses. They bud in great profusion in Scioto but go to some other county or some other state to bloom. Scioto has never had a governor, but she came very near to having one in Robert Lucas, in the early days of the state. Lucas was a Scioto county man and "fit" with the men from this county in the war of 1812. He seems to have been some pumpkins of a man and the beautiful principality of Lucasville is one of his monuments, and others exist in numerous decendants, who always have been and still are in touch with the best interests of the country. But in an evil hour Mr. Lucas concluded to abandon Scioto and move over into Pike county. Hence, when he was elected governor he had to be credited to that county. Pike reveres his memory and shows it by the way she has permitted his fine old colonial residence to be given over to the bats, owls, pigs and other representatives of the animal and feathered race. Lucas was a live wire of a governor and if it hadn't been for him Toledo would today be in the state of Michigan. Hence the name, Lucas county.

Now comes "Ed" Dillon. Reared in Portsmouth and known in his high school days as "Eddie" he left Portsmouth and went to Columbus with no more sinister intentions than being a lawyer and a good fellow. If anyone had told him when he hung out his shingle in the Capital City he would one day be a candidate for governor, he would have immediately placed his informant in the class of a pale gray ninny.

His chief aim in life seemed to be to have the Columbus club of the American association hit the top and stay there. He is a big, husky rooter, and his Portsmouth friends who have sat with him at the ball ground always came home with demolished headgear, caused by the enthusiastic and more or less strenuous rooting of the aggressive judge. If he should be elected governor—which the gods and Jim Cox forbid—he would be credited to Franklin county, and Scioto will still be governorless.

Other Scioto county men have emigrated and given fame to other localities. We suppose if Dan Ryan should ever become governor, or more likely president, all Scioto would have to show for it would be the fact that she produced him and equipped him for the high honors. Some day Joe Tracy's sorrel head will poke up as governor or something greater, and some other county or state will get the credit, while the owls and whippoorwills of Rocky Fork will sing a requiem to the loved and lost Joe.

Judge Thompson and Jack Simmons were other Scioto countians to reach renown elsewhere, to say nothing of Elmer Dover, "Strick" Gilliland, Doc Waddell, Walter Taylor and Charley Barker. Also "Sill" Purcell—don't forget Sill. He went to Logan from Portsmouth and soon gained a state-wide reputation as humorist, editor, politician and all-round picturesque character. In the days of his greatness Sill always harked back to old Portsmouth day. He said he would trade off all his fame and wealth for one year of his old life as a Portsmouth "wharf-rat."

Trial Set For Tonight

The trial of the Royse assault case will take place tonight at 7:30 o'clock, in 'Squire Byron's court. Oscar James charges John and Sam Royse with having assaulted him a few days ago. The Royses are employed at the Excelsior Shoe factory. Sam Royse has been missing from town since the warrant was issued for him, and John will stand trial tonight.

Pistol Shot Scared Horse

A small boy shooting a toy pistol on Offnere street, Wednesday, caused Brach & Hurth's delivery horse to run away. The frightened animal ran out Offnere street and was stopped at the railroad crossing by street railway employees, but not before the horse had thrown the wagon against a telephone pole. One wheel was smashed and the top of the wagon was torn to pieces.

Russell Woman Was Attacked By Negro

Ironton, O., July 3.—Much excitement was occasioned in Russell, Tuesday evening, by the attempt of an unknown negro to assault Mrs. Wilson, the wife of a railroad man. Mrs. Wilson, her sister and her sister-in-law were walking down the country road and when they reached the "overhead" bridge a low, heavy-set negro, wearing a green suit, the trousers of which were ripped in one leg, and a cap, confronted them and after acting in a very indecent manner made an attempt to assault Mrs. Wilson. Her screams and those of her companions frightened the brute away.

Marshal Wadkins was notified of the occurrence and he and Squire Coster hurried to the scene but when they arrived they could get no trace of the man wanted.

A posse of fifty or more men from Russell joined in the manhunt but to no avail, and 'twas well for the fellow that this was true, for had he been found a lynching would have almost surely followed his apprehension.

ON A SPREE, NOT KILLED

Chief King and Officer Mayne of Ironton, spent Tuesday afternoon here hunting for George Burns and some other shantyboat men whom they suspected of knowing something about the disappearance of Dan McDaniels, an aged molder of that place.

McDaniels, who lived on a shantyboat at Ironton, was last seen Monday evening. He had gone down to call on Burns and a drunken carousal continued until far into the night when the boat suddenly pulled out and started down the river. People claimed to have heard a splash in the water about the time and as McDaniels was nowhere to be found the suspicion arose that he had been murdered. The Ironton officers came down in a gasoline launch. They found Burns' boat moored opposite Wheelersburg. They came to Portsmouth after a fresh supply of gasoline and then stopped to search Burns' boat on the return trip. They found the missing man safe and contented among his newly-formed acquaintances.

CARR'S ENGAGEMENT DIAMONDS

Of course you would not think of giving a Diamond as a betrothal gift which you did not know was of the right quality, setting, etc.

The name of Carr has become a synonym for fair and honest dealing. It stands for quality and all that is best in the jewelry business. If that name is on the box the contents pass without question. It adds much to prestige but nothing in price.

We will be glad to talk Diamond with you any time. Ask about our easy payment plan.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Evan C. Jones.

Word was received here Tuesday of the death at Delaware, O., of Mrs. Evan C. Jones, of Jackson, who passed away in a hospital in that city following an operation three weeks ago for hernia. The body was taken to Jackson Tuesday and the funeral will take place Friday. Mrs. Jones had gone to Delaware to see her daughter, Miss Edna Jones, graduated from Ohio Wesleyan. She was taken ill just before her daughter's graduation and has been in a hospital ever since. She is survived by three daughters, Margaret, Elizabeth and Edna, of Jackson, and Attorney Dan Jones of Ironton.

Wikoff Funeral.

The remains of Andrew Jackson Wikoff, a former Rarden man, who died in Columbus Saturday, were taken to Wamsley, Adams county, his old home, for burial. Mr. Wikoff was of advanced age and had been in feeble health for some time, his demise being due to a general breakdown and infirmities incident to age. His wife died several years ago but he is survived by several children. Mr. Wikoff lived in Columbus for several years where he conducted a successful grocery business.

Mrs. Sarah Call.

Mrs. Sarah Call, aged 76, widow of the late Hugh T. Call, quietly passed away at her home, No. 100 Offnere street, Wednesday morning about 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Call had been suffering with lung trouble for the past two years, but had been bedfast only a week. She was a good Christian woman of noble qualities, and her death is deeply mourned by her many relatives and friends. She was born in Vernon township and lived in this city for 24 years. She was twice married. Children surviving by her first marriage to Jerry Munyon are: Samuel Munyon, of Scioto Furnace; Jerry Munyon, of Jackson, Ohio; John Munyon, of this city. Children by the second marriage are: Mrs. Nancy Ruggles, Mrs. Joseph Cunningham and Ora Call, at home, and Ira Call, of Scioto Furnace. Surviving grand children at home are: Charles Munyon, Catherine Beckman and Naomi Call.

Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been perfected, but it will likely take place Friday afternoon.

Fred Edward Monk

Fred Edward, the 13-months old baby son of Ellis Monk, shoeworker, died at his home on Front street, near Waller, Tuesday evening. The child had been ill since March with lung trouble. The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Rev. Sams, of the Free Will Baptist church, will conduct the services.

Hunt

The funeral of Mrs. Zola Hunt who died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Thompson, near Rarden, Monday forenoon, was held Tuesday and burial was made at the Young cemetery.

Mayfield Funeral.

The remains of William Mayfield, well-known painter, who died at his home in this city early Monday, were taken to Rarden via train Wednesday afternoon, and thence to Log Church cemetery, Mt. Joy, for burial. Besides members of the family the body was accompanied as pall-bearers by E. M. Cross, Willis Calhoun, Charles Scott, Emory Martin, Thomas Yarnell and Robert Ury, of Painters' Union, local 555, of which Mr. Mayfield was a member.

Munk Funeral.

The funeral of Ellis Monk's young baby, Freddie, will take place Friday morning, at ten o'clock, instead of Thursday afternoon, as announced elsewhere.

Hiram Knapp.

The funeral services of Mr. Hiram Knapp, of Davis Station, were held Wednesday afternoon at Blackwoods church, conducted by Rev. Mr. Borring, of Lucasville. REV. MR. DILLON IS DELIGHTED

"I did not want him to be nominated, neither did he wish the nomination," said Rev. J. W. Dillon in speaking of the nomination of his son, Judge Edmond Bothwell Dillon, as the Republican candidate for the governorship of Ohio. The silver-haired minister then paused a moment, and with pride flashing from his eyes declared: "But now that Ed is nominated, I want him to have it."

Reverend Dillon was "feeling good" over his son's nomination when interviewed at his residence, 614 Campbell avenue, on Wednesday. Since the message which was given Mrs. Dillon on Tuesday afternoon that their son had been accorded the highest honor within the power of the Republican party of Ohio, both father and mother of the candidate have been somewhat stirred up. It is not every day that a father has his son nominated for the governorship.

Elated over the good news and desiring greatly to see his son, Rev. Dillon had planned to leave for Columbus early Wednesday morning, but his physical condition prevented. He was unable to sleep Tuesday night and will probably not go up to the Capital City for a few days.

"I don't want to indulge in any unseemly joy," said the clergyman, "but you can't say too much for his integrity. He will do the right thing, at the right time, in the right way."

Discussing Editor Cox, the Democratic gubernatorial candidate, Rev. Dillon said: "Now, this man Cox is popular. If anyone should mention his name to me I would tell them that my wife was a Cox girl before she was married. Possibly the two are related," humorously concluded Mr. Dillon.

According to his father, Judge Dillon showed no political leanings when a boy. "As a matter of fact we thought that he was going to become an engineer," said Rev. Dillon. "Ed would run up and down in front of the house puffing and blowing like a steam engine."

Later on Judge Dillon became interested in medicine and it was not until he was 22 years of age that he became interested in the law.

A fact which is not generally known concerning Judge Dillon is that he was quite an athlete when in school at Ohio Wesleyan University. He played on the ball team there and was a heavy hitter, never failing to score in a game, it is said.

"Ed is well versed in the scriptures," said Rev. Dillon. "Many times his knowledge of the Bible has amazed me, and I don't see how he has had time to study so thoroughly when the other things which he has done are taken into consideration."

The father of Judge Dillon is one of the oldest Methodist ministers in Ohio, having served 51 years. Ten years of that time he was a Presiding Elder. The home training which the judge received has resulted in his rapid rise, so his father thinks.

"I don't believe that Ed could be persuaded to do wrong, in fact I know that any effort to drag him into anything discreditable would meet with his greatest opposition," concluded the minister.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hardgrove of 1605 Franklin avenue, entertained most charmingly last evening, in honor of their guest, Miss Mabel Hambrick, of Roanoke, Va. Games, contests and piano selections by Mr. Gilbert Fairtrace were the pleasures of the evening. In a contest of old-fashioned sayings, Miss Anna Etterling and Mr. Ralph Hawkins won the first prize, a box of candy, and the booby prize, a peanut box, was awarded to Miss Ruth Milstead and Mr. Wilbur Brant at the close of the evening. Refreshments of ices and cakes were served by the hostess. The guests present included Miss Anna Kendall, of Vanceburg, Ky., Miss Jennie Wilson, of Columbus and Misses Viola and Zella Veach, Ruth Milstead, Mae Kah, Edith Knost, Anna, Ella and Tena Cook, Ella Kinnamon, Elnora and Dorothy Schwartz, Hazel Jones, Ida and Minnie Frick, Anna and Laura Etterling, and Messrs. Gus Etterling, Wilbur Brant, Sam Evans, Oscar Kah, Ralph Hawkins, Gilbert Fairtrace, Homer Oakes, Basil and Everett Hardgrove, John Bowser, Orville Roberts, Wilford Bouts, Earl Like, Frank Dann and Graydon Hambrick. The souvenirs of the evening were cards, on which were inscribed the fortunes of the guests.

Mrs. Chris Young entertained a bevy of charming young girls this afternoon at her residence on Third street for the pleasure of her niece, Miss Virginia Brent, of Clarksburg, W. Va., who is spending the summer with Mrs. Young. Needlework was included in the pleasures of the afternoon, after which Mrs. Young served ices, cakes and mints to the guests, who included Miss Dorothy Campbell, of Rock Camp, Misses Marjorie Thomas, Henrietta Dupuy, Marguerite Dawson, Blanch Wittenberg, Stella McCall, Helen Dunn and Lena Hauck.

Dainty refreshments of ices and cakes brought the evening to a delightful close. The next meeting will be held with Miss Julia Drugan.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Cook and baby son, of 8[illegible] Third street, left today for a two weeks' visit in Anderson, Indiana, with Mrs. Cook's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Terry.

IN THE CITY IS HERE

How Glorious Fourth Will Be Celebrated

But few stores will remain open in the city of Portsmouth on the Fourth. The factories, wholesale houses, groceries and retail dry goods stores will be closed the entire day.

Where fireworks are on sale will be about the only places of business open and thereby the kiddies will be made happy.

Millbrook park will be the center of attraction for hundreds. Baseball fans will watch the weather man closely tonight and if he predicts rain for the Fourth, there is likely to be a murder to start off with.

Hundreds of picnic parties were planned today and automobiles will be running in every direction Thursday. The city folk will be making for the country and the country folk for the city.

Many will take in the big picnic at Rarden, for which arrangements were begun many weeks ago. But hundreds of others will take a day off and have absolute rest.

At the driving park there will be races that will please the lover of horses.

The admirer of the prize fighting ring will keep his ear open for news from Las Vegas, where the world's championship fight will be pulled off.

The German Methodist Sunday school will have a picnic at Peebles' Grove.

Ironton, O., July 3.—Col. H. A. Marting has purchased the stock of C. B. Fowler, which he held in the Marting Iron and Steel company. This deal was consummated a week or two ago and only became public Tuesday.

Mr. Fowler was seen by a representative of The Irontonian in regard to the deal. He said that it was true. When asked if it meant that he intended to leave the management of the Etna furnace, he said: "I am still up here."

It is thought that Mr. Fowler intends in the future to go to Cleveland where he has interests in dock property and the sale of this stock to Colonel Marting presages this event. Mr. Fowler is a successful iron man, and his departure would be a distinct loss to Ironton.

Contagious Blood Poison, as the name implies, is an infectious blood taint which may be communicated from one person to another. Its virus is of a most insidious nature, multiplying from an insignificant germ in the blood until it becomes a thorough systemic poison. So powerful and dangerous is this terrible blood plague that no time should be lost in trying to drive it from the system. It should not be temporized with, but should be killed as one would a deadly serpent on the pathway. The first manifestation of Contagious Blood Poison is usually a tiny sore or pimple, but it rapidly spreads, and in a short time the entire body shows its presence in the blood. The mouth and throat ulcerate, glands in the groin swell, the hair begins to come out, copper-colored spots appear on the body, and frequently running sores and ulcers break out on the flesh.

A condition of such serious nature requires proper treatment. Not only must the disease be driven out, but the system which has been weakened by the powerful poison must be built up, before health can be restored. The question of most importance therefore is—what medicine has proven by actual results its superiority as a blood purifier? We claim this distinction for S. S. S. because of its successful record for more than forty years.

S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison by purifying the blood. It goes into the circulation and removes the last trace of the infectious virus, acts with fine tonic effect on the stomach, bowels, kidneys, and other portions of the system, and thus makes a perfect as well as a permanent cure. S. S. S. is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, each of which has a specific action on the system. Not a particle of mineral or other harmful substance enters into its composition. S.S.S. is perfectly safe for any one, and instead of upsetting the stomach, as mineral medicines often do, it tones up this important member, and makes digestion easy. Thousands have cured themselves of Contagious Blood Poison by the use of S. S. S., and if you will write and request it we will send you, without charge, our Home Treatment Book which will give you all necessary information for crushing out the life of this serpent-like poison and curing yourself at home. We will also give you free any medical advice you may wish. S. S. S. is sold at drug stores. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

HOW JUDGE E. B. DILLON RECEIVED THE NOMINATION

(By A Delegate)

That the Taft men led the Roosevelt adherents into a trap in the nomination of Judge Edmund B. Dillon for Governor at the Republican state convention held at Columbus, Tuesday, is the general belief of many of the delegates who attended the convention.

It had been given out on Monday evening that the Taft people had gone to Walter Brown, an avowed Roosevelt leader and chairman of the State Central Committee, and agreed to the nomination of Brown's candidate, Garford, of Lorain county, providing Garford would make a public statement that was satisfactory to them. The Taft men insisted that Garford come out in a straight endorsement for Taft and the National Republican platform. This Garford refused to do. He did make a statement, but one that set the Taft crowd mad with frenzy. Garford, who is a large manufacturer, stated that he had not budged one iota from the stand he took before the Chicago National convention, which he characterized as being in the hands of political pirates. This sealed Garford's fate then and there, for it was easy to see when the various delegates were hobnobbing in the Neil house lobby on the eve of battle that many of the Roosevelt boosters had had a sudden attack of cold feet.

As soon as the Garford statement was seen in the papers, the Taftites immediately announced that they had decided to nominate Langdon, who had made a great mail canvas of the state in the interest of his candidacy. Many of the delegates were called into conference and supplied with the Langdon tip. The bosses, however, were slyly winking the other eye, that having hatched a scheme, it is said, to nominate Judge Dillon, knowing the nomination of Langdon could not be accomplished.

On the eve of the convention many of the Franklin county delegates met in secret conclave with Arthur Vorys, L. C. Laylin, Senator Burton and others, and there the Dillon boom was born. The Franklin county delegates agreed to vote for Dillon on the fourth ballot and they did so, for it was seen by this time Langdon could never win, and that if something was not done to check the rapidly moving Garford he would be nominated, and it would never do for any Roosevelt man to get any recognition from that convention.

Judge Dillon was not in the auditorium when the Franklin delegates voted solidly for him, but many of his Capital City friends were and they set up a roar that could be heard for blocks.

On the next ballot the friends of Garford stood loyally by their man, while Langdon lost, as delegates here and there deserted his banner for that of Judge Dillon, who entered the hall at a most propitious time. He was spotted by the Columbus crowd and another roar swept the big auditorium.

"Get in the band wagon!" they yelled as Dillon's vote mounted higher and higher, Langdon sinking absolutely to nothing.

When Hamilton county dropped their candidate, Kroger, and went for Dillon with their 87 votes, it seemed as though everybody in the hall was on their feet. It was all off for Garford, right then and there, and he was nominated before Scioto county was reached, although three of the Scioto county delegates had voted for Judge Dillon on the previous ballot. He would have received at least five votes had two of Scioto county's delegates been in their seats.

When the vote was announced, Judge Dillon arose from a seat in the rear of the auditorium and attempted to thank the delegates for the honor. However, he was forced to the rostrum, being met in the aisle by Editor Warren G. Harding, the noted orator of Marion, and the man who was badly beaten by Judson Harmon for Governor two years ago the coming fall.

Dillon was escorted to the stage and made a short acceptance speech. He was visibly affected over the "unexpected" honor, but at that did himself proud, speaking with the calm deliberation of a jurist making a charge. He was dressed in a natty light suit, and is most certainly of striking appearance. He is 6 feet, two inches tall, and built in proportion.

He had announced the night before that under no circumstances would he accept the nomination of Governor, preferring to receive the nomination for Judge of the Supreme Court. However, this may only have been a pre-convention play.

Hon. Henry T. Bannon stated Monday evening that he was confident that Judge Dillon would be the dark horse of the convention, and his prophesy proved correct. Mr. Bannon importuned Judge Dillon to stand as a candidate for the Governorship at the previous convention. The two men went to school together and are fast friends. It is generally admitted that the Republicans named their strongest possible candidate when the mantle fell across the broad shoulders of Judge Dillon.

New Boston Plans For A Fine School

In the immediate future the village of New Boston, it was learned Wednesday, would vote on a bond issue to erect an eight or ten room brick school building that is to be one of the most attractive in Scioto county. It has long been in need of a building of this character, and the promoters of the project feel sanguine that the bond issue will carry handsomely.

So confident are they that they have notified Architects Devoss and Patterson to prepare plans and specifications for the proposed temple of learning, which is to be build of brick and reinforced concrete. The trustees feel that they must build for the future, and the building is to be modern in every detail. It will be centrally located, and a date on which the bond issue will be taken will be fixed shortly. Approximately the new structure will represent an expediture of from $15,000 to $20,000.

Honors The Memory Of Judge Thompson

Says the Cincinnati Times-Star:

"Saturday there was hung upon the walls of the United States District court room in the Government building, a splendid portrait of the late Judge A. C. Thompson, who was for many years the judge of this court, and who was succeeded by the present judge, Howard Hollister. The portrait, which is a true likeness of the late jurist, is a present to the court from Colonel Robert Thompson, a brother of the dead judge. Colonel Thompson's home is in New York city. He was a great admirer of his brother, and at his death asked permission of the court to present the portrait. Before he had a chance to have the picture made the Cincinnati Bar Association commissioned Charles T. Webber, the late Cincinnati artist, to do the work, and Mr. Webber, although in bad health, made the portrait which was shortly afterwards hung in the court room directly behind the bench. Colonel Thompson was not pleased with the portrait done by Mr. Webber and gained the consent of Judge Hollister to have another made in its place. The new one is by Dewitt M. Lockman, a distinguished portrait painter of New York.

"The portrait of Judge Thompson is one of a very interesting group of jurists who have honored the local federal bench. Practically the walls of the court room are now filled with these pictures. On the other hand the dignified room occupied by the robed Circuit Court of Appeals is absolutely devoid of pictures of former judges. From Clerk Frank O. Loveland it was discovered that eleven judges have sat upon this bench since the foundation of the court twenty-one years ago. Of these three are now dead; Judge Jackson, who afterward was elevated to the supreme court; Judge Harlan, who also went to the higher tribunal, and Judge Richards. For some reason or other no efforts have been made to secure their portraits for the local court room. When President Taft and Justice Harlan were on this bench together they formed an agreement that the one who survived the other would pay for the portrait. There is a rule which prohibits the hanging of a portrait of a living judge, and this rule is never violated."

Considering New Pastor

The resignation of Rev. G. H. Frennd as pastor of the German Evangelical church has been formally accepted by the congregation. Seven or eight applications for the pastorate have already been received. There is talk of the trustees increasing the salary of the pastor.

Washing With Clay

A savage tribe in Africa daubs cloth with clay, then rubs the dirt out in the river. That's a good deal like using a hunk of yellow soap that is made heavy with rosin and stale grease. The rosin stays in the cloth and keeps some of the dirt with it, and then your clothes look streaky. Easy Task Laundry Soap—the white soap made of cocoanut oil, borax, naptha and wholesome tallow—takes the dirt out. That's its business; taking dirt out and driving disease germs away. Twenty-five years of reputation back of it, and still it is but five cents a cake.

N. & W. DOING BIG BUSINESS

Bluefield, W. Va., July 3.—Sixteen hundred and thirty-five cars were averaged every day during the month of June over the Pocahontas division of the Norfolk & Western. The daily average was considerably below that of last month, indicating that the tonnage for the month will be in the neighborhood of 1,700,000 tons, but which figure will make a new record for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912.

The indications point to a lighter month during July, due to a falling off in demand and a refusal on the part of the operators to flood the market with coal at sacrifice prices and at a loss to the mines.

WORKMAN IS BADLY HURT

William Gregory, a stone mason employed on the new school building under construction at McDermott, was seriously hurt late Tuesday when a scaffold on which he was standing gave way, precipitating the workman into the basement.

Gregory sustained an ugly gash in his forehead besides receiving several severe bruises.

The injured man lives at McDermott and was removed to his home where Dr. Gordon, of that place, rendered medical assistance.

Young Man Charged With Horse Stealing

Frank Sheets, alias W. B. Barnett, aged 20, and claiming to live in the country back of Ashland, Ky., was arrested by Officer John Smith, Wednesday morning, for alleged stealing a horse and buggy at Ironton.

The arrest followed shortly after Smith had received word from the Lawrence county authorities that the outfit had been stolen. A good description was furnished and so when Glenn Bierley, a street car motorman, telephoned to headquarters that a stranger was trying to sell a horse and buggy for a low price on Eleventh street, Smith correctly figured it was the very one wanted. He learned that the stranger had been directed to Bridges' boarding stable as a likely place to dispose of the outfit. He was just preparing to leave there when Smith caught sight of him and placed him under arrest. The sheriff at Ironton was notified and after learning the description said Sheets was the man wanted. He will come down after him this evening.

Miller Huggins May Become A Manager

St. Louis, July 3.—Miller Huggins is playing his last year with the Cardinals. That is, the tiny second-sacker will depart if Manager Roger Bresnahan can put through a deal this winter that will strengthen the National league team.

Huggins is not to be traded because Bresnahan envies the brains of the "Rabbit," or because there is ill-feeling between the boss and his tricky little assistant, but because Miller Huggins has the managerial bee buzzing in his bonnet.

There are not many more years of major league baseball left in Huggins. Miller knows that; also Roger. But there is a head on the shoulders of the peewee that contains a lot of smart baseball, and one that holds as much baseball knowledge, inside and outside, as almost any of the present day managers.

There is a standing order between Bresnahan and Huggins now that if the second-sacker can arrange a trade for himself that will strengthen the Cardinals it will go through. Last winter it was thought that Huggins would become leader of the Cincinnati Reds, and when Miller was in the running for the job he was given permission from Bresnahan to open negotiations for a trade.

When Hank O'Day was appointed there he lost out. But he continues to seek a position as general director and if any bids are received he will be allowed to depart, of course, providing Bresnahan is pleased with what he is offered.

If Huggins leaves the Cardinals after this year, then Lee Magee will become the second baseman. Magee is outclassed by Huggins in experience, but he is speedier than his opponent, is a better hitter and is going to become one of the best base runners in the circuit.

Then Bresnahan thinks that he has the coming greatest second baseman in the game in Magee. He is an ardent admirer of the Cardinal for the simple reason that he has copied Roger's style perfectly—being full of vim and dash and wide awake all the time.

For the present, and probably for the rest of 1912, Magee will do left field duty. In Chicago Sunday, he muffed two flies, because he was working in a terrible sun field and unaccustomed to the dark glasses. However, just as soon as he masters the rays of the sun and becomes acquainted with the way the liners twist when they sail to the outfield, he will improve.

Huggins probably would have gone to Boston when the Cardinals were in the east, but for John M. Ward and his coworker, James Gaffney, being afflicted with cold feet. The bosses of the Braves and Johnny Kling are not working in harmony, and it has been hinted often that Kling is not a shrewd or smart leader.

The opening for Huggins is Boston, unless Garry Herrmann ousts Hank O'Day in Cincinnati. Both team have several that could strengthen the Cardinals, and when Roger Bresnahan gets ready to talk with his foes for Huggins, he is not going to put a 10-20-30 tag on pee-wee Miller.

Dicky Breen Hitting 300

Dicky Breen, who played here two years ago, is making 'em sit up and take notice in the Western league. Breen, according to the latest list of batting averages, is hitting at a .311 clip. He is playing with the Sioux City team.

HAD THREE PUTOUTS

In a game against Columbus the other day, Fred Hunter only had three put-outs, which is very unusual for a first sacker. Fred got as many hits as put-outs, as he cracked out a double and two singles.

Wolgast Is Favorite

Los Angeles, July 3.—Ad Wolgast and Joe Rivers today announced they were ready to enter the ring in the best of condition Thursday for the lightweight championship battle. Only light work was indulged in today. Each boxed four rounds.

Wolgast weighed 130, at which weight he expected to enter the ring. Rivers' weight was announced as 131, but it was said he would go into the ring at 132.

Betting today had changed somewhat and Rivers money was more in evidence. Many bets have been placed at 2 to 1 on Wolgast, but now 16 to 7 seems to be the prevailing odds.

Hal Chase At Second

Hal Chase, a left-handed thrower, is playing second base for the New York Americans. It is the first time a left-hander has played an infield position, except first base, in the majors in many years.

It has always been claimed since the old days a southpaw could not play the infield because he has to turn to throw to first.

The Giants will play the Ironton Midways the morning of the Fourth at Millbrook. The lineup of the Irontonians is: McKee, c.; Abel, p.; Hogan, ss.; Hesweln, 1b.; Ferne, 2b.; Crance, 3b.; Heffner, lf.; McCarthy, cf.; Feuchter, rf. The game will be called promptly at 9 o'clock.

BURDEN REAL GLUTTON FOR WORK

Burden, who pitched for Marion against Newark Tuesday and won his game 2 to 1, is the iron man of the Ohio State league. He has only been in it nine days, yet he has already taken part in six games. He was with Winchester in the Blue Grass league last year and pitched 51 games. In 1910 he took part in 73 games, so the sobriquet of iron man fits him snugly.

A SALUTE TO THE FLAG

REDS TO MEET EASTERN TEAMS

The Reds will come home Sunday for a stretch of 18 games on the home grounds. Four regularly scheduled games will be played with each of the four teams of the east and postponed games will be played with Brooklyn and Boston.

The Reds will open the home games with the Brooklyn club. The Phillies will come next, then the Braves, followed by John McGraw and his Giants.

The Reds should make a better showing against the eastern clubs at Redland Field than they did against the same clubs in the east. The Red pitchers are in better shape now and the team has overcome the batting streak that kept it from winning a majority of its games lately.

Koney Has Changed Style

Ed Koney, the giant slugger of the St. Louis Cardinals, changed his style of batting this season and has made more hits than any player in the league except Heinie Zimmerman. Koney got four hits Monday against the Reds and boosted his total to 95. Zim has made 95.

In former years Koney gripped his bat far down at the end, stood far back of the plate and took several steps forward and a big swing when he hit at a ball. Whenever he connected for a safety the drive generally netted two, three or four bases. He got more long hits than singles.

This season Koney is gripping his bat far up from the handle and poking the ball. He stands flat-footed and takes only a short step when he hits. He is getting singles at the rate of two and three a day. He is not getting as many long hits as in former years.

ANDRES HAS SLUMPED

Manager George Andres since assuming the management of the Sox, has found out that managerial responsibilities frequently have a bad effect on the batting eye. George has dropped from 300 to 273. He is making his hits count, however, and is driving in many runs.

Fans Want Team

Sharon, Pa., July 3.—With Manager Fred Pease of the Sharon O. and P. league baseball club away, presumably for the purpose of carrying out a threat made today to remove the franchise to Connellsville because of lack of financial support, prominent fans held a meeting today and will meet again tomorrow morning to advise means of keeping the franchise here. The fans have considerable money pledged and can provide all that is necessary through a deal pending.

AL BRIDWELL WILL PLAY SHORT

Al Bridwell, shortstop of the Boston Nationals, will play short for the Portsmouth Steel team against the Eagles at Millbrook park Fourth of July afternoon. This will be one of the most bitterly contested games of the season as a lot of good natured rivalry exists between these two clubs.

The batteries will be Schultz and Russell for the Shoemakers and Lewis and Dawson for the Eagles. Umpire Severs will call the game at 2:30.

PETE JOHNS IS A COMER

Pete Johns, ex-State leaguer, now playing short for the Akron team, may be Columbus timber next season, comments Bob Read in the Columbus Journal. He had a great day at hitting Friday, but a week or so ago the tip went out that he has been playing consistent ball. He might have been up sooner but for an injured knee.

In the Ohio State league Johns was one of the most promising utility men seen in many a day. He is at home in any position on the diamond.

J. JOHNSON AND FLYNN RESTING

Las Vegas, N. M., July 3.—The principals in the Johnson-Flynn heavyweight pugilistic championship fight here July 4 today indulged only in road work and light exercises. Late today Johnson and Flynn were called into conference with Referee Smith, who explained his interpretation of the rules under which the men will fight.

Hotels are crowded and private residences are filling rapidly. Plans have been perfected to fill the local railroad yards with parked sleeping cars, beginning tonight for the accommodation of late arrivals.

Captain Fred Fornoff of the New Mexico mounted police has been put in charge of the arena.

Pitcher Hogg of the Boston Nationals, who was secured from the New Orleans club, has been released to the Lowell club of the New England league, but he refuses to go.

JOHNNY KILBANE IS AFTER THE WINNER

Instead of being the recipient of challenges, Champion Johnny Kilbane is challenging.

Jimmy Dunn, his manager, yesterday announced he would have a message read from the ringside at Vernon, Cal., July 4, which will be in the nature of a defi to the winner of the Wolgast-Rivers bout.

Kilbane wants to box Wolgast if Wolgast beats Rivers, and Dunn needs to let him if the match can be arranged. It is thought Promoter Uncle Tom McCarey may endeavor to sign Wolgast and Kilbane for a battle later in the season.

Such a contest undoubtedly would be a great card on the coast. Kilbane yesterday expressed himself as confident he could trounce Rivers, but did not know how he would come out with the champion lightweight. However, he said he was willing to try conclusions.

ANXIOUS TO DISLODGE GIANTS

The New York Telegram says:

"Pittsburg is playing with earnest zeal to push Chicago out of the way, no matter what luck may befall the Pirates when they next meet the Giants. Pittsburg never will give up hope of beating New York for the championship so long as there is a possibility that they may do so.

"It would be foolish if they did. So long as the Pirates seem to be strong enough in the race to be the runner up, if they fail to win the pennant, it is worth while to trail as closely behind the Giants as possible, figuring always that misfortune may befall the leaders, or that they may slump slightly in their efforts.

"The Cubs are making the best fight that they can against the Pittsburgs. Incidentally, they will not fail to put forth their best efforts when the Giants meet them next week. In some ways it is probable that the Giants will be forced to encounter stiffer baseball on this trip west than they did on the last.

"The western teams are a little better in condition than they were, and it is but natural that they should make this fight against the Giants the severest which they can muster.

"This week ends the present series at the Polo Grounds. The last game is played Friday afternoon. On Saturday afternoon the Giants go over to Brooklyn, and that night they leave for Chicago."

TOMMY KIBLER RELIEVED AS MANAGER

Lima, O., July 3.—Short lived was the management of Wee Tommy Kibler at Chillicothe. The selection didn't meet with the approval of Tommy's colleagues—no, not by a jugful. Result: Those infants called a council all of their own and elected that nimble brave, Mr. Chief McCall, as grand sachem. Hence, Tommy is once more a private in the ranks, while the copper colored first sacker is the big wheeze.

McCall is well known to local enthusiasts. He has played with the Hanes two seasons and is a ball player of more than ordinary ability. McCall, it will be remembered, is the player fined $10 on the local grounds a few weeks ago by addressing his umps with an ugly epithet. Chiefie chose to change his shoes in view of the grandstand and he was given a double plaster.

Occasionally they do things down in the Ancient Metropolis.

Cy Waldorf, the big pitcher Chance took east with the Cubs, has been released to the Atlanta club of the Southern league. He needs more experience before he can be of use to the Cubs.

WHO WILL STOP THE GIANTS?

Who is going to stop the Giants?

The team has now won 11 in a row and their opponents have been decisively beaten in almost every game. The Giants have developed teh home run fever and almost daily two and three four-sackers are lined out and just when the sacks are pretty well tenanted.

It is practically assured that the Giants will represent the National in the world series. In the American league the honor lies between Boston and Philadelphia, with the Athletics the favorite.

200,000 Motorists No-Rim-Cut Tires—Sold Here

Over 1,000,000 No-Rim-Cut Tires have been tested out. Some 200,000 motorists use them. 127 motor car manufacturers are using them on 1912 cars.

And now the demand for No-Rim-Cut Tires is greater than ever before. Aren't these facts alone sufficient reason why you should use them?

Here are further reasons why we sell and recommend these tires—why you should use them.

PREVENTS RIM-CUTTING.

In the base of the No-Rim-Cut Tire are vulcanized 6 tapes of 126 braided wires. It is absolutely unstretchable. The side rings are reversed—the sharp hooked side turned away—the round side comes next the tire.

When the tire becomes deflated, there is nothing to cut.

The No-Rim-Cut Tire saves all the worry and ruin of rim-cutting. And the tire can't come off.

NO OVERLOADING.

No-Rim-Cut Tires are 10 per cent oversize. That oversize means 10 per cent more carrying capacity. It takes care of overloads. Prevents blowouts. Means on an average 25 per cent more mileage.

Don't you see why we recommend No-Rim-Cut Tires? Don't you see why you should use them?

We shall be glad to show you whenever you call.

THE PRINCETON GLEE CLUB SINGING THEIR CONVENTION SONG

Salient Features Of Democrat Platform

The chief plank of the platform adopted by the National Democratic convention at Baltimore are given below:

"We, the representatives of the Democratic party of the United States, in national convention assembled, reaffirm our devotion to the principles of democratic government formulated by Thomas Jefferson and enforced by a long and illustrious line of Democratic presidents."

Tariff Reform.

Demanding tariff for revenue only.

High Cost of Living.

Putting blame for present conditions on the protective tariff, and claim that substantial relief can be secured for the people by materially reducing import duties on necessaries of life.

Anti-trust Law.

Brands private monopoly as indefensible and intolerable. Favors vigorous enforcement of the criminal as well as the civil law against trusts and trust officials, and demand the enactment of such additional legislation as may be necessary to make it impossible for a private monopoly to exist in the United States. Condemns the action of the Republican administration in compromising with the Standard Oil Company and the tobacco trust, and its failure to invoke the criminal provisions of the anti-trust law against the officers of these corporations.

Rights of the States.

Believes in the preservation and maintenance in their full strength and integrity of the three co-ordinate branches of the federal government—the executive, the legislative, and the judicial. Insist upon the full exercise of all the powers of the government, both state and national, to protect the people from injustice at the hands of those who seek to make the government a private asset in business.

Income Tax and Popular Election of Senators.

Congratulate the country on the triumph of the two important reforms demanded in the last national platform, namely, the amendment of the federal constitution authorizing an income tax and the amendment providing for the popular election of senators. Note with gratification the unanimous sentiment in favor of publicity before the election, of campaign contributions. Denounce the enormous expenditure of money in behalf of the president and his predecessor in the recent presidential contest for the Republican nomination for president.

Presidential Primaries.

The movement towards more popular government should be promoted through legislation in each state, which will permit the expression of the preference of the electors for national candidates at presidential primaries. Direct the national committee to incorporate in the call for the next nominating convention, a requirement providing for the selection of presidential candidates, delegates and alternatives and national committeemen through a primary election conducted by the party organization in each state where such expression and election are not provided for by state law.

Campaign Contributions.

Pledge the Democratic party to the enactment of a law prohibiting any corporation from contributing to a campaign fund, and any individual from contributing any amount above a reasonable maximum.

Term of President.

Favor a single presidential term, making the president of the United States ineligible for re-election, and pledge the candidate of the convention to this principle.

Democratic Congress.

Endorse action of the Democratic house of representatives in the Sixty-second Congress and challenge comparison of its record. We call the attention of the patriotic citizens of our country to its record of efficiency, economy and constructive legislation. It has passed bills for the relief of the people and the development of our country, and has endeavored to revise the tariff taxes downward in the interests of consuming masses, and thus reduce the high cost of living. It has passed a bill to prevent the abuse of the writ of injunction and passed a law establishing an eight-hour day for workmen on all national public work. It has passed the great supply bills which lessen waste and extravagance and which reduce the annual expenses of the government by many millions of dollars. The party that proclaimed and has always enforced the Monroe doctrine and was sponsor for the new navy, will continue faithfully to observe the constitutional requirements to provide and maintain an adequate and well-proportioned navy sufficient to defend American policies, protect our citizens and uphold the honor and dignity of the nation.

Republican Extravagance.

Denounce the prodigate waste of the money wrung from the people by oppressive taxation through the lavish appropriations of the recent Republican congress, which have kept taxes high, and reduced the purchasing power of the people's toil. Demand a return to that simplicity and economy which benefits a democratic government and a reduction in the number of useless offices, the salaries of which drain the substance of the people.

Banking Legislation.

Oppose the so-called Aldrich bill, or the establishment of a central bank.

Rural Credits.

We recommend that an investigation of the agricultural credit societies in foreign countries be made so that it may be ascertained whether a system of rural credits may be devised suitable to conditions in the United States. Recognization of the importance of currency reform.

Waterways.

Renewal of declarations relating to the conservation of our natural resources and the development of our waterways.

Post Roads.

Favor national aid to state and local authorities in the construction and maintenance of post roads.

Rights of Labor.

Repeat declarations of the platform of 1908, in addition to other reforms, including pledges so far as the federal government is concerned to the compensation act and for the creating of a department of labor, represented separately in the president's cabinet.

Agriculture.

Believe in encouraging the development of the modern system of agriculture and a systematic effort to improve the conditions of trade in farm products as to benefit both the consumers and producers.

Merchant Marine.

Believe in fostering by constitutional regulation of commerce and growth of merchant marine, and urge upon congress the speedy enactment of laws for greater security of life and property at sea.

Panama Canal.

Favor legislation forbidding the use of the Panama canal by ships owned or controlled by railroad carriers engaged in transportation competitive with the canal.

Pure Foods and Public Health.

Reaffirm our previous declarations advocating the union and strengthening of the various governmental agencies relating to pure foods, quarantine, vital statistics and human health.

Law Reform.

Recognize the urgent need of reform in the administration of civil and criminal law in the United States.

The Philippines.

Reaffirm the position thrice announced by Democracy against a policy of imperialism and colonial exploitation in the Philippines or elsewhere.

Arizona and New Mexico.

Welcome these two common-wealths to the sisterhood of states, and heartily congratulate them upon their auspicious beginning of great and glorious careers.

Parcels Post and Rural Delivery.

Favor establishment of a parcels post and extension of the rural delivery system as rapidly as practicable.

Pensions.

Renewal of the declaration of our last platform relating to a generous pension policy.

Rule of the People.

The Democratic party offers itself to the country as an agency through which the complete overthrow and interpation of corruption, fraud and machine rule in American politics can be effected.

In Conclusion.

Our platform is one of the principles which we believe to be essential to our national welfare. CONSTITUTION MAKING

ARTICLE NO. 4

The Contract Social is that we adopt certain fixed and settled principles and a frame of government and that we will not change the same except in the manner provided in the instrument. This is the modern written Constitution. The collection of principles to govern the state is styled the Bill of Rights and the other part is the frame of government. Many times specific provisions are inserted in the framework which could better be supplied by ordinary statutes.

When this is done the state is liable to be hampered and thwarted in political action. The states which have hampered and thwarted themselves with statutory provisions to the greatest extent are Missouri, Virginia, Oklahoma and California. The New England States have simple and plain constitutions without unnecessary details. Massachusetts is perhaps the best example of a constitution such as the fathers proposed. The constitution of Ohio of 1802 is much like the model of the fathers. The tendency of modern constitutions is to fill them up with details, which ought to be left to the legislature.

A constitution full of statutory details is a curse to any people. All constitutions are calamities and the more details they have the more difficult they are to amend, the greater calamities. Great Britain has the best constitution because she has none, at all. The British constitution, when spoken of, simple means those great principles of government and precedents which have been observed for hundreds of years and, which are, partly expressed in Magna Charta and in the Petition of Right. Really it would be better than any and all civil officers were selected to serve during efficiency and good behavior. In practice that is the case in Great Britain though parliament has a term of seven years. However, in practice, most members of parliament are returned from the same constituency indefinitely.

We have reached the day of experts. Men are educated more and more for particular careers and more and obtain success only by faithful adherence to them. It would be better if all our legislators were educated for service in our legislative bodies and served in them continuously. It would be better for our judicial service and for the public which must have it, if our judges were educated for their offices and held them permanently. That is the case in France. The state cannot compete with private corporations which have trained service, while it does not. It is no wonder that we are ruled by corporations when their officers are permanent while ours are changed every two to four years. About 15 per cent of our people are interested directly or indirectly in public office. The other 85 per cent have no interest whatever except that the public service be properly administered, yet we spend most of our time in changing public officers.

What is the theory of the choice of judges in Ohio under the present constitution? It is, that any elector is fit for a judge, if he can secure more votes for the place than anyone else. He does not need to have any other qualifications than that of an elector. The plurality of votes qualifies him for the office. That such in this part of the state. How much better it would be to give the governor the power to select all judges. He is usually one of the most prominent and best citizens of the state. He is elected by the people and acts under an oath of office. He is charged with the duty of selecting the judges and can make an intelligent and careful selection. No man can then select himself or buy his selection from the political boss, as is now frequently the case. The people are not allowed to nominate the judges and if they were, they do not have the information nor can they obtain it, to determine the fitness or qualifications of the candidates. There is no course left to them but to vote by political label and that is the thing the political bosses propose to have them do, and in results compel them to do. The larger the number of votes, the greater the impossibility of voting intelligently for those offices and hence the puerile folly of this method of selections. The longer the term of the judge, the better the results—in each and every state. To illustrate the monumental folly of electing judges without any qualifications for the office in the organic law, I will say this: Two years ago, the Hon. Edwin D. Sayre, of Athens, was the Republican candidate for Circuit Judge, in this, the Fourth Circuit. The Hon. Oscar W. Newman, of this city, was the Democratic candidate. Both were trained lawyers eminently fitted for the position. The Socialists put up Henry Wells, of Portsmouth, a layman who had never looked into a law book, and whom no one knew, for the office. Now suppose Wells had received a plurality of the votes. He could have accepted the office and held it for six years and drawn the salary of $36,000 for six years and had he conducted himself properly, as no doubt he would, he could not have been impeached or removed from office, and yet his services would have been of no value to the Circuit and yet he received 500 votes in Scioto county. In the Judicial Article which I prepared and which is printed in full in No. 3 of this series of articles, required that the Supreme Judges should be learned in the law and members of the state bar ten years previous to their appointments. Also that the Circuit judges should be learned in the law and five years members of the state bar. The same requirements applied to the Common Pleas judges.

A proposition was introduced into the convention and referred to the Judiciary Committee of which the Hon. Hiram D. Peck was chairman, from the Hon. Edmund R. King, of Erie county, to the effect that the judges should be lawyers. It was reported out by the committee and recommended that it be indefinitely postponed, which report was concurred in. I regard the election of judges by popular vote as an economic and political science heresy productive of all manner of evils familiar to our people contrary to common sense and good judgment. The making of their terms less than during efficiency and good conduct is a like was take. When the people of this state understand themselves, the constitution will require that all judges be learned in the law, members of the Ohio Bar and that they be appointed during good behavior and efficiency and good conduct, and be made easily removable for inefficiency, or bad conduct.

Insurance as everyone should vote on each of the propositions according to his principles I shall vote "No" on this proposition herein discussed. When I am compelled by vote to choose for or against principles announced by the Fifty Five Conscript Fathers who formed our Federal Government, I shall vote to sustain them. When I have an opportunity to vote for or against any proposition fastened upon our people sixty-one years ago, by that false political prophet and teacher of political and economic heresies, Sam Medary, I shall vote against his teachings.
